

CUCS 2019 Conference Programme

Thursday 19th September

h. 13.00 – 14.00 Registration of participants

h. 14.00 – 15.00 Plenary session: Opening Ceremony and Welcoming Speeches

Chair: Guido Zolezzi, Coordinator of the CUCS 2019 Local Organising Committee, University of Trento

- Giuseppe Sciortino, Prorector for policies encouraging talent attraction and research enhancement, University of Trento
- Mario Raffaelli, President of the International Cooperation Centre, Trento
- Alessandro Andreatta, Mayor of Trento

h. 15.00 – 16.30 Plenary session: Cooperation and Development: Viewpoints from International Institutions

Chair: Marco Brunazzo, University of Trento

- Claudio Tomasi, UNDP Turkey
- Franco Conzato, DG-DEVCO, Deputy Head of Unit 'Evaluation and Results', European Commission

h. 16.30 – 17.00 Coffee break

h. 17.00 – 18.30 Parallel Sessions

- Exploring the Water-Ecosystems-Food (WEF) Nexus under the Lens of the Commons: from Water as a Common Good, to the Right to Food
- Can we Learn International Cooperation? International Cooperation Training in the Third Millennium
- Civic Tech Between Theory and Practice
- Profit and Non-Profit Cooperation: a Change for Development Cooperation?

CITIZENSHIP AND COMMON GOODS
University and international cooperation for safety, environment and sustainable development Trento 19-21 September 2019

Thursday 19th September - SIDE EVENT

h. 21.00 – 22.30 Theatre Performance @San Marco Theatre (in Italian)

“Prossima fermata. Un racconto a tre voci sulla possibilità dell’esistenza”, by Lorenzo Marangoni.

From an idea by Amor Vacui and Doctors with Africa-Cuamm. This event is co-funded by the Italian Agency for Development Cooperation (AICS) within the project “Educare alla cittadinanza e salute globale”

Friday 20th September

h. 09.00 – 10.00 Plenary Session: Research Freedom and Innovation: the Global South point of view

Chair: Ester Gallo, University of Trento

- Jama Musse Jama, President of the Somali Studies International Association
- Liviu Matei, Provost of Central European University and Professor of Higher Education Policy

h. 10.00 – 10.30 Coffee break

h. 10.30 – 12.00 Parallel Sessions

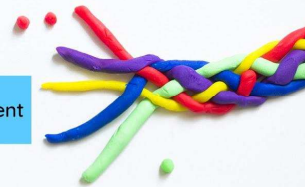

- Defending Academic Freedom and Freedom of Expression. The Role of Universities and International Organisations
- Access to Water in the Global South: Actors, Interests, Problems and the Role of International Law
- Disability Mainstreaming: a Successful Key to Leave no one Behind
- GCE: Education, Citizenship and...Good Governance! Project “Nuove narrazioni della cooperazione”, co-funded by the Italian Agency for Development Cooperation (AICS)

h. 12.00 – 13.30 Lunch break

h. 13.30 – 15.00 Parallel Sessions

- WORKSHOP - The Route of Global Citizenship Education in Italy: a Multistakeholder Workshop for Advancing the National Strategy for Global Citizenship Education. Project “Nuove narrazioni della cooperazione”, co-funded by the Italian Agency for Development Cooperation (AICS)
- The Shared Responsibility of Local Stakeholders in the Governance of Resources
- Local Food Networks: Policies and Practices of International Cooperation
- Practices for Engaging Students in International Development cooperation
- Innovation for Development: Being Global Innovators

h. 15.00 – 16.30 Poster session with coffee

h. 16.30 – 18.00 Parallel Sessions

- Rights of Participation by Local Stakeholders in the Governance of Resources
- Food in Commons: Civic Participation and Local Food Policies
- Students as Protagonists
- WORKSHOP - Reclaiming space: New Narratives for Development Cooperation. Project “Winning the narrative”, promoted with CILD
- One Health: Multi-sectoral and Multi-stakeholder Approach to Promote Health and Sustainable Development at Local and Global Level

h. 18.00 – 19.00 Plenary Session: A bridge between Academia and Third Sector. To the memory of Paolo Dieci

Chair: Massimo Zortea, University of Trento

- Gianni Vaggi, University of Pavia
- Maura Viezzoli, CISP

Friday 20th September - SIDE EVENT

h. 21.00 – 22.30 Theatre Performance @ International Cooperation Centre (in Italian)

“Fenicotteri a Ventotene”, theatrical reading on the creation of a United Europe.

By Maura Pettorruso, with Maura Pettorruso and Stefano Pietro Detassis.

This event is co-funded by the Italian Agency for Development Cooperation (AICS) within the project “Educare alla cittadinanza e salute globale”.

Saturday 21st September

h. 09.00 – 10.15 Plenary Session: Wrap up of Parallel Sessions and Introduction to the Round Table

Chair: Stefano Rossi, International Cooperation Centre

- Mauro Marsili, Head of Unit, Directorate for International Cooperation, Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs
- Paola Berbeglia, CONCORD Europe
- Gian Battista Parigi, University of Pavia
- University student representative

h. 10.15 – 10.30 Paolo Collini, Rector University of Trento, gives the CUCS 2019 Best Poster Award

h. 10.30 – 10.45 Coffee break

h. 10.45 – 12.30 Plenary Session - Round Table: An Italian Agenda for Global Development. What are the Priorities?

Chair: Mario Raffaelli, International Cooperation Centre

- Claudio Tomasi, UNDP Turkey
- Mauro Marsili, Head of Unit, Directorate for International Cooperation, Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs
- Luca Maestripieri, Director of Italian National Agency for Development Cooperation
- Silvia Stilli, Spokesperson of Association of Italian NGOs (AOI)
- Diego Vecchiato, Director of International Relations, Veneto Region
- Annalisa Bisson, Coordinator of Confindustria International Activities
- Emanuela Colombo, Politecnico di Milano
- Corrado Diamantini, University of Trento

h. 12.30 – 13.00 Plenary Session - Closing remarks and final declaration

- Guido Zolezzi, University of Trento
- Mario Raffaelli, International Cooperation Centre

Under the patronage of

